

Loosen your belt buckle. It's time to laugh!

If there was ever a routine that could make people laugh without saying a word, The Rodeo Rejects has accomplished just that. Inspired by old western movies and silent films, this original comedy western routine hits its mark.

Bullwhips, knives and arrows!

Audiences aren't just watching Nick & Alex demonstrate dangerous stunts... they're watching two "wanna-be" cowboys fumble their every move on stage.

Although Nick & Alex appear in neck-brace and shoulder harness, this time things will go as planned. Maybe.

Whether you need to wake up an early morning meeting or add some unique, wild and crazy cowboys to your next production, The Rodeo Rejects are sure to be a barrel (or two) of laughs.

You guys are very funny.
You guys are great!"
